二、课程简介

This course is a language skill training course for majors of international studies. It is synchronized with College English, complementing each other to perform its duties. With IELTS reading and writing as the goal, the course enables students to understand the basic exam format and test-taking strategies of IELTS, and grasp the features of IELTS reading in terms of vocabulary, grammar and discourse. Students are expected to acquire the reading skills to interpret title, browse questions, find keywords, grasp the main idea of each paragraph, analyze long sentences and locate specific information. In writing, students should develop the consciousness of style, cohesion and coherence, and cultivate an adequate understanding of writing genres such as graph description and argumentative essays. Students should also be aware of different sub-topics to adopt appropriate strategies, structures and language to accomplish the writing task. While preparing students for the test, this course is devoted to improve students' overall English competence and abilities with a combined approach of learning and practice, so that students can achieve steady and considerable progress in vocabulary, grammar and comprehensive capability. 本课程为面向国际专业学生的语言技能培训课程，与《大学英语》同步进行、相互配合、各司其职。以雅思考试为训练中心，以雅思阅读和写作为训练对象，目的在于使学生在一定的时间内了解雅思考试的性质、考察方式、题型组成等基本信息。掌握雅思阅读在词汇、语
